- Game progression -

- You gain level as you defeat enemies and receive EXP.
- Level UP as you go, and acquire more and more at the EXP Rate of the current Level.
- Each Level requires various EXP, Level-ups and (at most) 1 GF (which is obtained from Favorable Battles or Battle Success Rate).
- Approximately, each time you win a Battle with an enemy, you will receive considerable EXP and GF gains.

- You can lose a part of GF if you lose at a Battle or fail to defend your base.

- System Settings -

- In addition, each time you level-up, you will receive an EXP based on your current Level. If you fail to level-up, EXP is delayed.
- These settings are optimum.

- Battle System -

- There is no Multiplayer Battle Support in STRG.NET, so you will have to fight against each other locally. However, you can increase the CF by intervening in Battle.
- Successfully fight with an enemy, and you will defeat the enemy.
- Enemy HP drops gradually, and a clump of HP will be shown on your line.
- Every successful attack with your sword will add to your main attack, and when your opponent's HP drops to zero HP, you win the Battle without any HP clump.
- If you want to
