The new campaign, aptly named Koperasi Bule Bali (Bali Police on the Beat), focuses on warning residents about the existence of laws and penalties for the consumption and/or use of alcohol. According to the newspaper, Bali Post, the Bali Police has published posters with the message, "Don't Drink and Drive, Jail Time" or "Driving After Drinking, Jail Time". Additionally, the police has formed a special team called the "Anti-driving after drinking units", who are specially trained to help the public understand the laws and penalties of the 21 Bali Police Anti-DUI Campugati. From the article: "The Chief of the Law Enforcement Agency of Bali has also promised to increase the number of police patrols and install more roadblocks to detect drunk drivers." The campaign is said to be a success as some of the posters have been seen on many locations around the island. On April 20, 2015, Koperasi Bule Bali released two posters about alcohol consumption
