ASTER V7 Keygen. 81."It was a really good team effort. I think we all struggled a little bit when we first walked out there. We talked and figured it out. It was a really good game. We had a lot of new starters out there, so I think we came together at the end and executed at a high level." On his hit on safety Brian Robinson... "That one was on me. I knew he was open. He was wide open. That one, I'm obviously sorry about. I just wish that he would've had the ball at the end of the game, but you know what? We were playing good defense after that. We kind of dominated that drive." "That one was on me. I knew he was open. He was wide open. That one, I'm obviously sorry about. If the first variable is 'true' then do something. Else, do something different. var a = true; var b = false; if (a) { //do something } else { //do something different } I've tried if (a && b) but that didn't work. Thanks! A: if (a) { //do something } else { //do something different } Just use the syntax with a single boolean if (a) { //do something } else { //do something different
